

Embracing the Truth of Your Divinity

~ Artful Intuitive Messages ~

“May we develop our awareness of the countless beautiful things in everyday life, for every phase of beauty contributes to the expansion of spiritual upliftment and understanding.

Meishu Suma

When I Embrace Beauty, I always think of Earth who offers her inhabitants so many opportunities to Explore, Embrace, Express, and Expand in all possible ways. Her gifts nurture and prepare us for personal Transcendence. As Earth Loves and Nurtures who we Are, the Sun provides Guidance and Vitality through its refracted Light.

There is one day out of the year that is celebrated by the Mayan culture to bring both the Earth's and the Sun's gifts into our awareness for personal and collective alignment. This special day is July 25th and is called the 'Day Out of Time'.

What is the 'Day out of Time'?

"The Day out of Time" is always synchronized with July 25th. Based on The Galactic Calendar, this is the 365th day of the year, but this day is no day of the month, and no day of the week. This is a day for sacred pause and celebration before the dawning of The Galactic New Year which is always July 26th!

David & I celebrated this past Day Out of Time in alignment with two birthdays (mine and Lance; my eldest grandson) with the theme of Time is Art. We gathered with grandchildren to create 'Artful Intuitive Messages'. I was inspired to paint in this manner by Artist, Sandra Little, through an Art Journeys class.

As I allowed by imagination to open to this month's article and message, my mind took me to my artwork, with the thought of using a technique that I have labeled "Artful Intuitive Messages". I was given the inspiration to use this technique as the voice of Expression for this month's article.

Using this technique, I simply clear my mind and thoughts and allow the colors and brushes to create the pictures.

Following is an Artful Intuitive Message for this month with tips on discovering your personal message.
