

Embracing the Truth of Your Divinity

Saying YES... Living ~ Laughing ~ Loving

NEW: Spiritual Intelligence Alliance

By Jackie Self

Yes... Yes... Yes... These last several weeks I have felt the energy shifting and a sense of Joy flowing through my body and energy field. NOW... I feel the waves of Love that are flowing as many of us have decided to open our hearts more fully and Trust in ourselves while allowing our Inner Divinity to lead the way.

Thank YOU! Thank YOU! Thank YOU!

Keeping these three L's (Live - Laugh - Love) as our focus will ease our personal journeys. I believe that Life is meant to be an easy, enjoyable, fun, and meaningful experience. In these last few months my Appreciation for Life has deepened and I find myself laughing more often. I aspire to be more Present in my conversations and relationships with others; really listening and sharing more fully from a Heart and Soul level.

Observing from my higher perspective, I can see how Cosmic and Nature intelligences are partnering or teaming up to offer all physical Humanity participation in this grand cycle of Evolution. The ascension plan is in full process for all, not just a few. During these times, perspectives can be heightened while physical and environmental changes occur that broaden our understanding and world view. Those that have already been through this process understand the importance of Trusting in their previously agreed upon Divine Agendas. As always, the choices and decisions we make daily will affect the outcomes.

Whatever there is of God and goodness in the universe, it must work itself out and express itself through us. We cannot stand aside and let God do it.

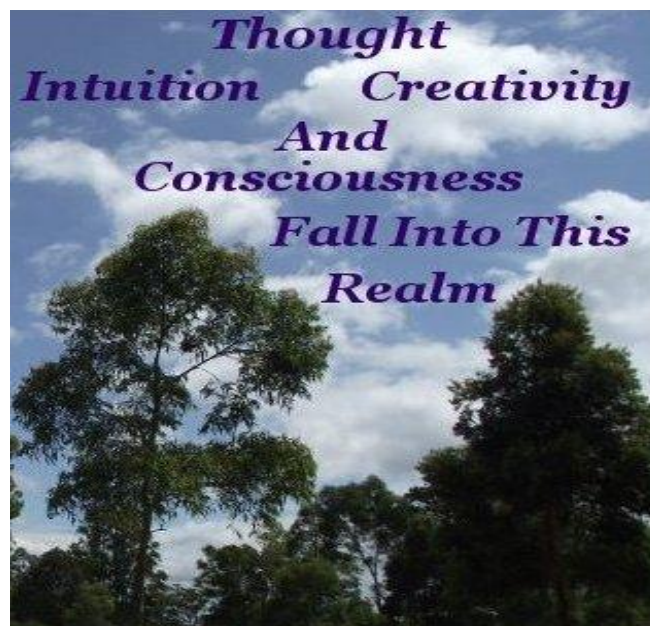

~ Albert Einstein ~

A personal decision that David (my partner) and I have recently made is to physically act upon an idea that we have been mulling over for quite some time. We decided to replace an old dilapidated storage barn with a new building designed by David. This new building will include a large workshop for Creating Artful Expressions and other projects for ONE-TLC Friends and Family to use. After major clean up and many trips to the recycling center and dump yard, the old barn is down and we are delightfully feeling greater inner Clarity and enjoying a new beautiful and clear space with new potentials.

We are open to ideas as to how we can add more Living, Laughing, and Loving within our facility, services, and programs. We hope to hear from you.

Spiritual Intelligence Alliance

We, along with our Board of Directors, decided on March, 2019 to initiate a Spiritual Intelligence Alliance (SIA) which is now expanding with more Clarity. We held a ceremony on that date with several friends and were given information and insights through Intuitive Guidance as to what would be required. Until now, this project had been put on hold as we allowed it to evolve knowing that personal development was needed before a collaborative team would emerge.

The SIA consists of Like Minded Individuals who are inspired to share their knowledge, wisdom, services, and creative ideas to assist Humanity where there appears to be a need. The SIA is designed to be a FREE service. (All out-of-pocket expenses would be provided by those requesting services)

As founders of this Alliance and on behalf of ONE-TLC, we offer Transformational, Transitional, and Going Beyond Facilitator services to groups; families, businesses, or corporations.

We use our personally developed module of Now~Living Potentials for Transformational services which provide a grounding foundation. This helps others to understand themselves and assists in finding direction by re-discovering their Human/Divine Purpose/Mission. We can then assist in their Transition which will lead to the Next step or forward movement, on whatever level best serves their Spiritual Growth.

As Going Beyond Facilitators we offer a safe and compassionate environment for others to ask questions, share their views, and express their creative ideas. This is a group discussion in which one can discover and explore many other points of view and increase personal awareness while developing personal listening and observation skills. We have been pleasantly surprised by the Out-of-the-Box Ideas, Concepts, and Experiences previously shared in these groups.

Receiving Assitance

The Oneness-Now-Energy~Transformation-Light-Center is the ideal setting to receive services. We feel personal experience is key to Enlightenment and Spiritual Growth. Our Center has been in continuous development since 2012 with the assistance and contributions of many like-minded individuals.

The SIA is also available to come to You wherever you may be, as long as out-of-pocket expenses are provided for. We are available to assist those that truly desire change AND are willing to take responsibility for their own lives.

You may contact us by phone (979-278-3360) or email (info@thecarmineconnection.com) for a consultation to determine how our services may benefit you.

Become a Member of the SIA

We are currently inviting new members. The requirement to become a member is to participate in two short FREE online courses that we offer. The first one is Self-Discovery, and the second one is Self-Mastery. We offer these courses as a foundation for Conscious Living. We know that there are many talented and skilled individuals who can synergistically add their expertise to the successful and beneficial outcomes that are possible for others as well as ourselves.

From the common base of Self-Discovery and Self-Mastery we can join together to provide the inspiration, direction, knowledge, wisdom, and more to assist others in transcending any obstacles that they perceived for themselves.

We look forward to hearing from You...

May your journey be filled with LIFE – LAUGHTER – LOVE...

Love & Namaste

Jackie
