Commencement of New Beginnings: 2021 Dimensional Understanding

By
Jackie Self

Last year was a pivotal point in our individual and collective consciousness. We were given time and opportunities to discover what it is that we really need and want. For some it was obvious, and for others it required a deeper look and perhaps deeper challenges to really enable us to see and sense our own Truth.

We are living in incredible times that allow us to expand our hearts and minds to receive greater awareness, leading us to creative insights, ideas, knowledge, and integration of our own innate Wisdom.

For myself personally, it was a year of exploring more of Who I AM, and reconnecting with my Soul/Spirit in new ways. This involved a deeper look and feel into the Pure Love and Consciousness that allowed my Heart (energetic experiences) and Mind (thoughts and beliefs) to Exist in this reality.

My curiosity led me to discover and understand more about our multidimensional potentials and aspects. There is a lot of information written and available about dimensions. I will describe below, the information I resonate with and continuously integrate into my Life.

Dimensions ~ Levels of Consciousness

There are nine dimensions of consciousness that are accessible through human evolvment, according to Barbara Hand Clow in Alchemy of Nine Dimensions. As we begin to understand ourselves on deeper levels, we will be able to integrate these expansive aspects and concepts of ourselves so that our NOW selves can experience Life in grander ways.

Being aware of the heights, depths, and broadness of these dimensions will bring greater understanding and ability to our co-creative efforts. We will be able to manifest that which we are passionate about and truly desire more readily.

“Consciousness is the feel of accessing memory.”
~ Bernard Beckett ~

Feeling the subtle energy (tuning in) of each of these dimensions is as important as understanding them. As you do so... you will be tuning into their frequency and vibrations. If feeling the energy is challenging, practice by placing your conscious awareness in the specified areas until you begin to sense the vibrations.

First Dimension

The first dimension of space is awareness as a point. The mineral kingdom resonates to this level of consciousness. Our Human bodies resonate with this level due to their composition of minerals and water as well as our genetic code.

When you begin a project, align your intentions with the vibrations of this dimension, focused on an area below your feet and being consciously aware, as you anchor your desired result. In this way... you are supported and your journey becomes easier.

Second Dimension

The second dimension of space is awareness of point and line. The plant kingdom and lower animal kingdom resonate to this level. These kingdoms are only conscious of their species' identity and their survival needs, living solely in the awareness of the moment. The autonomic nervous system of the human brain is the center for our second dimensional consciousness. It is the system that regulates and maintains life support functions.

Tune into this dimension, in the space between your sacral-root and feet, being consciously aware, and knowing that you are supported in creating a foundation for your project as well as energetically supported in moving the project forward.

Third Dimension

The third dimension of space is awareness of point, line, width and breadth, height and volume. Human beings and the higher animal kingdom resonate to this level. As a human we understand ourselves as being separate and unique, with little awareness of the interconnectedness of other beings and their actions.

This dimension is locked in a time/space and cause/effect paradigm through individual human souls. Humans have the ability to remember the past and the future while remaining aware of the present. If we only use our third dimensional consciousness, our past is forgotten, and we feel a sense of separation from the whole. We may feel limited in achieving our goals, and feel a need to work hard to bring them to fulfillment.

Tune into this dimension within your sacral-root center in conscious awareness. Choose to be in a state of Acceptance of past and future experiences. In this way... your physical body can process and integrate these experiences, and you can return to a natural state of JOY. You now Know that what you wish to create through your physical body is in Joyful practice; adding expansive expression to your Soul and consciousness.

Fourth Dimension

*The fourth dimension is the awareness of point, line, width and breadth, height, volume, and time. It is known as the astral plane. The primary consciousness of this dimension is in the astral body, which is also known as the "Higher Human/Self". The astral body is of an elevated vibration and is in etheric form. The fourth dimension is the realm of the unconscious mind.*

This dimension is connected to and supports the emotional body and planes. Through accessing states of Love, Peace, Happiness, and Freedom we can activate the Divine Flow within our being that will allow us to exist in synchronization with the constant flow of God/Source/Creator.

At this level, we have a beginning awareness of the Universal Law of One or Unity Consciousness; whatever affects one of us affects all of us. This is the realization and practice that no one is greater than any other and that group consciousness is the path to the future.

Tune into this dimension within your solar plexus area in conscious awareness. Ask that your wishes and desires be experienced in the highest good for all. In this way... You acknowledge the Now moment and allow yourself to Be in a state of emotional balance.

Fifth Dimension

The fifth dimension is awareness of point, line, width and breadth, height, volume, time and spirit. Linear time and space do not bind consciousness in this fifth dimension. There is NO illusion of separation or limitation. Instead, there is a constant experience of the Oneness of God/Source/Creator/All That Is.

On the fifth dimension we live in Unconditional Love, Unconditional Forgiveness, and Unconditional Acceptance. We hold no judgment, guilt, or negativity towards the "lower" portions or aspects of ourselves that are striving to remember our "Higher Selves". We gain freedom from the past and past experiences that hold us back in this reality. Emphasis here is on the level of the mind, mental body, and awareness, so that the Truth of God/Source/Creator/All That Is can be easily recognized to reveal the Spiritual Self. At this level, we are free to create new ways of thinking, being, and doing through the seeds of Unity Consciousness.

Tune into this dimension in conscious awareness, within your Heart area. Here you can be in touch with the Pure Energy of Love... a Feeling that is like no other... all encompassing and indefinable. In this way... you infuse your project or creations with Pure Love.

Sixth Dimension

The sixth dimension is known as the dimension of Crystal Consciousness. Beings here are called the Christed or Magical Children. They have access to their magical and spiritual aspects, and exhibit a playfulness of life. They view life in wonder and feel blessed. All life is directed and advanced through the work of their spirit. The sixth dimensional Being aligns with the flow of spirit's evolution while exercising the right to be a creator on an individual level.

As we access this level we enhance our inner knowingness and become more in tune with our Soul/Spirit. We have the opportunity to connect more fully and break away from the rebirth cycles while remaining on earth.

Tune into this dimension within your throat area in conscious awareness, and bring to mind any vivid dreams that you may have experienced in your youth. They may be dreams of flying above the trees, communing with the elementals, and feeling totally free and limitless. If you do not remember dreams, use your imagination. In this way... you lighten your thoughts and allow the playfulness of your inner child to have an expression through your projects and/or creations.

Seventh Dimension

The seventh dimensional Being has full awareness of the nature of their spirited mission. Beings that exist here are considered Adult Crystals. They are ready to take on a planetary mission as a facilitator of higher dimensional consciousness to others, either through teaching and healing on a large scale, or carrying the energy in one's aura so that others can access it on a grand scale.

To prepare: You can access this dimension to activate and instigate new learning and change current perceptions into new ideas that inspire and expand awareness. You can also initiate and activate alignment with your soul group within this dimension.

You can also detach from and let go of anything that is hindering or limiting your full ascension or mastery. The process of detachment is a key focus on this dimension. Detachment does not mean that you disconnect or disregard; it is simply to let go of bonds that cause any separation between you and God/Source/Creator/All That Is; AND recreate bonds of Love, Trust, and Faith.

Tune into this dimension within your third eye area, in conscious awareness. Allow any attachments that you have observed that are causing separation, to be reformed into bonds of Unconditional Love. Ask that you be aligned with your soul group to assist you in your planetary or Divine mission. In this way... you are in Unity Consciousness and initiate cooperation between yourself and your soul group to foster your planetary or Divine mission.

Eighth Dimension

The eighth dimensional level is of an Archetypal level of consciousness; available when one has full control over the Stories of Life on Earth. Here our Soul Group connection is enhanced.

The eighth dimension is a powerful space to exist within and access as it allows you to experiment, test, and explore Divine concepts, new ideas, and even the manifestation of intentions before they anchor physically. Often that which we believe will create fulfillment in our lives does not always satisfy us in the way that we expect.

Tune into the eighth dimension above your head in conscious awareness; visualize and sense the unfolding and development of your intentions/projects. You can then determine whether this intention/project serves you. If not, you can erase it and create a new intention for testing. In this way, you can decide whether to follow through with this specific intention/project or try something different.

You can make yourself available for communication and collaboration with your Soul Group in this dimension as well. In this way... you ensure that your personal desires and mission is in alignment with your soul group, and that it is a co-creative and cooperative project that will result in the highest beneficial outcomes for all.

Ninth Dimension

The ninth dimension is full cosmic consciousness in which one takes full responsibility for stewardship on and of the planet. This dimension incorporates the eighth.

To prepare: You can access this dimension for support in embracing the Divine Intelligence of God/Source/Creator/All That Is. This allows you to obtain new Divine concepts, ideas, and inspiration. This dimension also fuels spiritual evolution through the support of an abundance of Inspiration, Enlightenment, and Divine Truth, while allowing a deep connection with the God/Source/Creator/All That Is.

Tune into the ninth dimension, being consciously aware of an area above the eighth dimension. Open to receive any new concepts, ideas, and/or inspiration. You may ask for Divine Guidance and Clarity. In this way... you ensure a clear and direct connection that allows the Divine Flow of Information and Insights.
