Never has there been a better time to take a quantum leap into the present to embrace the fullness of one’s potential, with calmness, a new vitality, a profound detoxification and the return of an inner-genius thought-to-be-long-gone. All of these are possible with Scalar Light Healing Standardized Sessions. This is a real upgrade; a new dimension of health, it is subtle, and a quantum shift in one’s body, mind, and spirit. In simple translation, one can become more cognizant, aware, and can experience profound levels of well-being within a short period of time while receiving the 3 standardized protocols referred to as the “3 Pillars of Light” of Scalar Light Healing:

1. The Total Pathogenic Cleanse – (disassembling ALL known disease-causing pathogens)
2. The Nutrient Balance
3. The Chakra Light Balance

Recently, I spoke with the inventor of Scalar Light Healing, Tom Paladino (above). Tom is very approachable and has a true passion to heal humanity. His mission is to heal the planet and her inhabitants of ALL microbial diseases. When I contacted Tom for an interview, he was more than happy to participate.

Personally, I discovered Scalar Light Healing in 2015; since then, I have been an ardent fan and supporter of this technology. I figured my own version of a personal health epiphany with Scalar Light Healing was great enough, but maybe, I could also share my experience and enthusiasm for this unique technology with others.

My questions for Tom:

1. Where does scalar light originate and what is its character?

Answer: Scalar light originates from the Sun and the stars, as God, the Creator, is the Father of Light. Scalar light is the pure divine energy that gives the stars of the universe their glory and eternal luminescence. There are no thermonuclear reactions at the center of a star. Rather, it is scalar light that exclusively powers the stars. Furthermore, in character, scalar light is instructional energy that provides instructions for the universe. Thus, all spiritual, mental, emotional and physical events receive instructions from scalar light. Accordingly, all prayer, thought, emotion and physical forms are created and maintained by scalar light.

2. Describe the two energies: 1) scalar light and 2) electromagnetic energy?

Answer: All energy initiates at the center of the stars of the universe as scalar light. God utilizes stars as the "storehouses" of scalar light. Therefrom, scalar light will eventually convert into electromagnetic energy. As scalar light leaves the center of the star, it will convert into electricity and magnetism. Thus, electromagnetic energy is a derivative of scalar light.

3. So what are scalar light waves?

Answer: Scalar waves are also referred to as Tesla Waves or Longitudinal Waves which are capable of penetrating any solid object including Faraday Cages (enclosures used to block electromagnetic waves.) Example: a transmitter can be placed in a box of thick metal and the receiver outside the box will still receive the scalar wave. Scalar waves are capable of passing through the earth from one side to another with no loss of field strength as Tesla showed in one of his experiments.

Although, many have tried to recreate Nikola Tesla's patented inventions, few have succeeded to the level and sophistication of Tom Paladino's, Scalar Light Healing.

VISIT: www.scalarlight.com and read the many testimonials of clients who have changed their opinions and changed their lives with Scalar Light Healing. This technology is subtle, yet profound. There is no healing crisis, or downtime as associated with post-operative surgery, or strong pharma meds --this is scalar light frequency. We are living in the age of light frequency, or ether, The Age of Aquarius, also strongly associated to the Age of Disclosure, particularly, the disclosure of new truths and technologies. Aquarius is an astrological sign, ruled by air, or ether, it is associated with innovative invention and communication; other qualities of the, "Age of Aquarius," are a strong need for freedom, independence and individualism, it is a time of great visionary innovation, highly original thought, rebellious and bold assertions and disclosure of truth and action will be characteristic of this age. It is Aquarius' job to challenge authority, and to tear down existing structures, replace the older, outdated ones with something much better.

Respectfully, I challenge anyone to come forward and prove to me that the old system of synthetic drugs, surgery, radiation, chemotherapy, toxic vaccines and prescription analgesics, i.e., pain pills that destroy all human empathy is a better way to heal humanity. It's not. It's so old-school, really, Stone Age technology which will eventually become obsolete; it no longer works well. If your goal for this new decade is to achieve greater levels of consciousness, advanced spiritual awareness, improved vitality, increased happiness, and expanded frequency potential – then it is time to ditch the old-school ways.

Overcoming mainstream programming about options available to us for health, wellness and better living is a challenge, especially when we are so bombarded by false programs that formulate our subconscious mindset. These infect our judgments, they compromise us, they disempower us, and they tell us how to proceed in times of great change or sudden health challenges. Many of them are just plain barbaric. It is my belief, that in today's world of challenges, having an edge in wellness is like having an edge in fulfilling ones dreams ... plain and simple.

Question: can we live our best lives and fulfill our dreams if we are constantly going to the doctor refilling prescriptions for expensive, synthetic medicines that treat over-prescribed and over-diagnosed illnesses, post-operative surgeries, or debilitation from lack of nutrition, because the food we eat is such a poor substitute for real nutrition. These things can potentially hold us back from having the necessary energy to handle even the minutia in our daily lives, so pursuing the life we dream seems more and more remote ... are you with me?

The old paradigms we have been accustomed to for our healthcare, have never been honest, or a true path to wellness. They are more accurately a path to enslavement by a corrupt system pretending to care, or be concerned about our health and wellness, but in actuality, it's 100% about profits. Let's not pretend, this is the age of disclosure, after all.

There is no better time than this moment to register at www.scalarlight.com and start receiving Standardized Sessions of Scalar Light Healing treatments immediately. It is so easy. New clients try it for free the first 15 days. No risk. Learn about the long-term advantages of the Standardized sessions for anti-aging, rejuvenating the body, plumping up the skin and enhancing overall health and beauty – those same nutrients that feed your beauty regimen are included in the nutrient balance: collagen, hyaluronic acid, anti-oxidants, omega fatty acids, multi-vitamins, minerals and amino acids all working synchronistically to enhance beauty and slow down the aging process ... who is not interested in more freedom, becoming lighter and feeling more beautiful?

In 2020, I decree that we release the shackles of all our false programming beliefs within the cultural/pharma/matrix ... and instead, we more fully embrace our journey, and we live our lives to the fullest potential - and with the best health ever. Life is meant to be blissful, there is nothing stopping us from experiencing total bliss and total wellness; nothing, but our false beliefs. We really have everything we need. I encourage all who resonate with this manifesto to move forward into the light now - Scalar Light Healing.

May God Bless You Always - and May you be filled with Love and Light, always ~
