Chaos Always Precedes Reforming

Energy cannot be created or destroyed, it only changes form. The energy we see right now directly correlates to our own vibration. When you look around at chaos, do you devolve into judgment, criticism, wailing, and shutting down your energy? Or are you evolving in the knowledge that this is creation breaking down old systems and reforming them into something new, bright, and beautiful? Or, are you revolving in the same old energy you've always run, doing everything as you've always done it?

It is time for humans to change their perspective from the first chakra energy of tribalism, self-protection, hoarding, and fear into the second chakra energy of sacred partnerships, community, creativity, and compassionate meeting of the needs of the collective. We say we believe that all people are created equal, but we act as if we don't believe that, that some are better than others. That the importance of someone's needs is greater than the importance of someone else's needs.

We are all citizens of this planet. We all have a right to have our basic needs met, simply because we live on the planet together. We share what the earth offers, and no one has the right to hoard the resources so that some suffer from lack. There may always be some people who feel lack in their lives, but how can they ever address that as a personal issue if their actual sustenance is withheld from them? If they have no food, shelter, or safe place to live, and move, and have their being, how can they evolve into their highest and best, most beautiful, and creative nature?

The Aquarian Age is upon us. We cannot cling to the antiquated Piscean structures. They will not support us. They will fail because they must. In order for us to evolve into the current energy that is being freed for our growth, we must embrace the energies that are supported now. We can do it easy or we can do it hard. That's a choice.

Do you prefer ease and flow in your life or struggle and grasping? Do you choose love or fear? Change is inevitable in life, suffering is optional.

Sri and Kira say, "If it does not bring you joy, why are you doing it?" Esther Hicks/Abraham say, "Your dominant intent is to be joyful, the doing and receiving will come when you get that down." I say, "I choose joy and my life responds in perfect accord." Mahatma Gandhi says, "Be the change you wish to see in the world."

Start the transformation by saying "I am joyful because I am love," repeatedly as a mantra when you get stressed. That will begin to change everything. It's that simple. All that comes after is born of love and joy.
